

Business Consultant – Regulatory Affairs (m/f/d)

MAIN5 GmbH & Co. KGaA is an independent and successful management consulting company headquartered in Frankfurt am Main, Germany. We solve key challenges of our customers sustainably and reliably, each of which is of high relevance in the growing international competition.

Our focus is on the leading companies in the life sciences sector. This is the industry in which we are at home and in which we have sustainable success through the definition, implementation and introduction of forward looking methods, strategies and solutions.

To strengthen our IT Systems & Process division, we are looking for a

Business Consultant – Regulatory Affairs (m/f/d)

Your tasks:

- As a Business Consultant, as part of an account team, you will actively work and advise on the analysis and development of new regulatory business processes in R&D and Regulatory Affairs.
- You will organize and conduct workshops with the people involved and actively take on implementation, preparation, and follow-up tasks.
- You will work exclusively for the research-based life sciences industry and get to know customer requirements in the context of IT-supported business processes.
- Through "Training on the Job" you will acquire extensive knowledge of the industry and its specific requirements in the various areas.
- You will take responsibility for your tasks at an early stage and generate independently results, document and present them in direct dialogue with the project team and our customers.

Your profile:

- You have successfully completed a degree in the natural sciences or technology.
- You have already gained initial experience in the areas of Regulatory Affairs, R&D or Quality Management.
- You have experience in the management of content and data submissions and are familiar with RIM, IDMP/XEVMPD.
- As an experienced consultant, you have already gained experience in leading teams as well as in customer service and project acquisition.
- You enjoy new challenging tasks, in a complex environment, like to travel and have very good communication and presentation skills in English and possibly in German.

Our offer:

- We offer you individual development, methodical and professional coaching by our experienced colleagues in a dynamically growing company.
- We offer exciting projects and enriching challenges in an interesting market segment with top-class customers.
- You will work in an international environment and belong to a highly motivated and excellent team.
- We offer flexible working hours, home office, state-of-the-art technology for networked collaboration in a virtual organization, performance-based compensation, fairness, openness, freedom for individuality, regular team events, training, and a lot of fun at work.
